Aksharabhyaasam

The Aksharabhyasam ceremony, a sacred Hindu ritual that marks the formal initiation of young children into the world of learning, was celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm.

The venue had elegant floral decorations, lush green leaf backdrop, traditional marigold garlands highlighting the word "Aksharabhyasam." The ceremony was dedicated to Goddess Saraswati and Ganesha, the deity of knowledge and wisdom.

A vibrant altar, adorned with idols and images of Goddess Saraswati, formed the centrepiece of the ceremony. The most touching moment was when parents gently guided their children's tiny hands to write their first letters on plates filled with rice, symbolising the beginning of their educational journey.

The ceremony was graced by Our Chairman Shri K. C. Venkataronappa, Our Academic Head Shri R Venkataram, Respected Senior Principal, Smt.K.
